After this message had been received the authorities decided to bury Golden here at the expense of the county. His funeral will be held at 10 a. m. today from the undertaking parlors of Joseph William Taylor, and interment will take place at City cemetery.

LITTLE GIRL DIES.—Death ended the suffering of little Florence Morris, the daughter of City Treasurer R. P. Morris, at the Holy Cross hospital yesterday morning. She was only 16 months old, but was taken to the hospital to undergo an operation for appendicitis. The operation was performed Sunday afternoon and it was thought for a time that she would recover from the effects, but the child gradually became worse until she died yesterday morning.

Upon the Monday evening before the shooting, Mr. Haynes, she said, had taken her to a concert at the tabernacle and they returned home.

Mayor Sent Names to City Council Last Night.

SPENCER CLAWSON CHAIRMAN

CHIEF OF POLICE TO CLOSE ALL GAMBLING HOUSES.

THE list of appointees of the mayor upon the new board of public works was submitted to the city council last night and confirmed. The new board as it now stands is composed of Spencer Clawson, chairman J. D. Murdock, N. A. Empey, H. G McMillan and City Engineer L. C

A resolution was also passed in-structing the chief of police to close all gambling in the city and the Com-mercial club was invited to meet with the council to consider the water

The matter of prime importance and the one for which the public has been looking for some time past, was the appointment of a new board of public works. For some time past the mayor has had the new list of members made out, but has withheld them from th public. When the council opened it session last night a communication was presented from the mayor contain was presented from the mayor contain ing the above mentioned names. The communication was immediately acted upon and the appointees of the city executive were confirmed without dissenting voice. The next matter of importance to come before the council was the proposition to close the game through the contained with the contained was the proposition to close the game through the contained with the contained wi bling houses, some twenty-five or thir ty of which are now operating in the city. This action came in the form o a resolution presented by Councilman E. J. Eardley. The resolution asked that the council instruct the chief of police to see that all houses were closed and kept closed.

Prevalence of Crime.

In support of this resolution Mr Eardley made a lengthy speech if which he expatiated upon the preva-lence of crime in this city and called attention to the manner in which th gamblers had seemingly taken hold of the city. He pointed out that as if by magic more than a score of houses had opened up in the city lately and were opened up in the city latery and were running wide open. He thought that it should not be permitted, and that it was the duty of the city council, rep-resenting the citizens, to order the chief of police to see that all such houses were closed. President Cottrell of the council then took the floor and scake in support of took the floor and spoke in support of the resolution of Mr. Eardley. He, too, thought that gambling was becoming entirely too prevalent in the city and thought it should be prohibited alto-

When the resolution was put to a wote it was sustained and the chief of police will be given instructions to set that all gambling ceases. City's Water Supply.

The matter of the city's water supp was then taken up and it was decide that the council, mayor, city attorney, city engineer and land and water commissioner should visit the new pumping station at Utah lake next Thursday morning, leaving here at 8 o'clock. It was also decided that an invitation should be sent to the members of the Commercial club to meet with the city council as a committee of the whole t consider the water supply question. Th ted to allow Mr. Moritz a license for the place and it is his purpose to c it under the management of some for whose conduct of the place agreed to be responsible. Some other minor matters were disposed of and the council adjourned.
